

Triennial Analysis of SCRs: Briefing for practitioners in targeted early help services

Marian Brandon & Peter Sidebotham

Marian is Professor of Social Work and Director of the Centre for Research on Children and Families at the University of East Anglia. Her research activity focuses on child protection, children's views of child protection, family support and inter-agency working.

Peter is an emeritus professor of child health at Warwick Medical School. He has over 20 years' experience as a consultant paediatrician, designated doctor and academic specialising in child protection.

Briefing Objectives

This briefing summarises themes emerging from the 2019 Triennial Analysis of Serious Case Reviews 2014-17, presenting key messages for those working in early help provision.

The PowerPoint slides include links to related Research in Practice resources which will be useful for learning and development activities based on the findings of this report.

This briefing is intended for practitioners in targeted early help services, including:

- Family support workers
- Youth workers
- Drug and alcohol services
- Parenting programme providers
- Early mental health support
- Relationships and sexual health services
- Safeguarding leads in housing services and housing associations
- Third sector/voluntary organisations supporting children, young people and families with additional needs.

Copy & paste the link into your browser to then download the presentation to view the slides.

<https://seriouscasereviews.rip.org.uk/early-help/>

There is also a link to download a copy of the practice briefing:

There are other practice briefings in this series that you may be interested in. These focus on the individual learning for each service and are also available on our website

Wakefield
Safeguarding Children
Partnership

Please email your Feedback or Comments to:
wscpevents@wakefield.gov.uk

