

Triennial Analysis of SCRs: Briefing for education practitioners

Marian Brandon & Peter Sidebotham

Marian is Professor of Social Work and Director of the Centre for Research on Children and Families at the University of East Anglia. Her research activity focuses on child protection, children's views of child protection, family support and inter-agency working.

Peter is an emeritus professor of child health at Warwick Medical School. He has over 20 years' experience as a consultant paediatrician, designated doctor and academic specialising in child protection.

Briefing Objectives

This briefing summarises themes emerging from the 2019 Triennial Analysis of Serious Case Reviews 2014-17, presenting key messages for the education sector.

The PowerPoint slides include links to related Research in Practice resources which will be useful for learning and development activities based on the findings of this report.

This briefing is for staff working directly with children and young people in:

- Early years provision
- Schools and colleges (including maintained, independent, academy, free and non-maintained special schools) and Pupil Referral Units
- After-school settings.
- It is also for:
- Governors, management committees and proprietors and local authorities in their education functions
- Designated safeguarding leads.

Copy & paste the link into your browser to then download the presentation to view the slides.

<https://seriouscasereviews.rip.org.uk/education/>

There is also a link to download a copy of the briefing:

There are other practice briefings in this series that you may be interested in. These focus on the individual learning for each service and are also available on our website

Wakefield
Safeguarding Children
Partnership

Please email your Feedback or Comments to:
wscpevents@wakefield.gov.uk

